

Academic Integrity Policy

The Art Institute of Philadelphia recognizes that any form or degree of academic dishonesty challenges the principles of truth and honesty which are among the cornerstones of the college. Consequently, the college treats academic dishonesty as a serious violation of academic trust. All students found to have engaged in such behavior will be penalized.

Acts of academic dishonesty include but are not limited to the following:

1. The illegitimate use of materials in any form during a quiz or examination.
2. Copying answers from the quiz and/or examination of another student.
3. Plagiarizing or falsifying materials or information used in the completion of any assignment.
4. Obtaining or otherwise improperly securing an examination paper prior to the time and date for the administration of the examination.
5. It is presumed that material submitted by a student for an assignment is original to that assignment and therefore submitting the same work for more than one course without the consent of the instructors of each course in which the work is submitted is considered dishonest.
6. Intentionally interfering with any student's scholastic work, for example, by damaging or stealing their intellectual property, computer files, project, etc.
7. Stealing and submission of another student's work as your own.
8. Aiding or abetting any of the above.

The Art Institute will impose the following sanctions when a student is found to have committed any of the above infractions:

- 1st offense = failure of class *
- 2nd offense = suspension for two (2) quarters
- 3rd offense = expulsion

* EXCEPTION: Any students found cheating/plagiarizing on their final senior portfolio will be expelled from the college and will not receive their degree.

A faculty member who believes a student has committed academic dishonesty will contact the Dean of Students and will also file an incident report with the Dean of Students. The Dean of Students will contact the student and will meet with the student and the faculty member prior to the next scheduled class session. If it is determined that the student did indeed commit academic dishonesty, the Dean of Students will inform the student of the penalty. Records of academic dishonesty will be held by the Dean of Students.
